Double-check the URL. Delete any extra code that is contained in the article URL.

Problem: The article link works from on-campus, but not from off-campus.

Are you remembering to insert the Proxy preface to the article URL?

Problem: I tried everything, it just doesn't work.

It may be that the database in which the article you're trying to link doesn't allow linking. Please contact Instructional Services at 278-7673 or your Subject librarian for further assistance.
