

DROUGHT SUMMIT

California State University, Fresno
Smittcamp Alumni House - 15 January 2016

“North Star” Purpose – To bring together regional expertise to create a collective effort that aligns action to produce the best results in managing water, drought, and climate variability in the San Joaquin Valley.

- 12:00-12:15 – Provost Lynnette Zelezny: Opening Remarks: Moving Forward Collectively + Capturing Outcomes ("Reflections")
- 12:15-12:45 – Provost Lynnette Zelezny - Asset Mapping (Introductions): Who Are We? What Are Our Perspectives? What Would You Like To Offer to this Summit?
→ Christopher Lawless (Durham University, U.K.) Zoom-introduction
→ Laura Lynn Olson (United Nations Development Programme) Zoom-introduction
- 12:45-1:00 – (Get lunch from table, informal connecting, meandering back to conference room; working lunch)*
- 1:00-1:30 – Provost Lynnette Zelezny - Item #1: Water Information Resources Network and Data Research Center. Facilitators - Dean Peter McDonald, Henry Madden Library, and Director David Zoldoske, California Water Institute (partners in the WIRN-DRC)
- 1:30-1:45 – Break/Stretch*
- 1:45-2:15 – Fred Nelson, Interdisciplinary Water Cohort - Item #2: More Deliberate Sharing of Research Results. Facilitator Team – Fred Nelson, Science Education, Fresno State; Ryan Alaniz, Sociology, Cal Poly SLO; Robert Negrini, Geologist, CSU, Bakersfield; Fayzul Pasha, Civil and Geomatics Engineering, Fresno State
- 2:15-2:45 – Arrival/Greetings from President Joseph I. Castro, followed by Q&A by media
- 2:45-3:00 – Gil Harootunian, Facilitator - “Dynamic Planning” session. Brainstorming next steps (to include or be in addition to Items 1 + 2 above)
- 3:00-3:30 – "Dynamic Planning” – break outs and rotations based on interest in next steps that might be taken; time to connect, one-on-one, two-on-two...
- 3:30-3:45 – Dynamic Planning” – Highlights (oral summary from participants)
- 3:45-4:00 – Provost Lynnette Zelezny – “Reflections” - Participants capture reflections on today's work
- 4:00-4:10 – Break/Stretch*
- 4:10-4:45 – David Zoldoske - Tour: Water and Energy Technology (WET) Incubator (brisk stroll or drive over; participant choice)
- 4:45-5:00 – Closing Remarks by Provost Lynnette Zelezny – Recap + Next Steps (on site, WET Incubator conference room)