

California State University, Fresno

VETERAN SELF-IDENTIFICATION FORM
(for use by new hires and current employees only)

The California State University (CSU) is a federal contractor subject to the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974 (VEVRAA), as amended, which requires that federal contractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified individuals without discrimination based on a covered veteran status. To fulfill statistical reporting and affirmative action monitoring requirements, the CSU invites you to voluntarily identify your veteran status¹ by answering the questions below. Submission of this information is voluntary and no adverse consequences will result from either providing this information or declining to provide it. Information you submit will be kept confidential as required under applicable federal and state law. Should you decide not to self-identify at this time, you may do so at any time in the future. Note: If you are disabled, and need accommodation to perform the job properly and safely, please contact your Human Resources or Faculty Affairs Office to begin an interactive discussion to identify and provide you a reasonable accommodation.

Please check all boxes that apply to you:

Not a veteran

Disabled Veteran

Either (1) a veteran of the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service who is entitled to compensation (or who but for the receipt of military retired pay would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, or (2) a person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.

Recently Separated Veteran

Any veteran during the three-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service. Discharge Date (mm/dd/yyyy): ____/____/____

Armed Forces Service Medal Veteran

Any veteran who, while serving on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service, participated in a United States military operation for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded pursuant to Executive Order 12985.² (For the current list of military operations for which an Armed Forces service medal was awarded, see the attachment. Visit <http://www.opm.gov/Veterans/html/vgmedal2.htm> for updates.)

Other Protected Veteran

A veteran who served on active duty in the U.S. military, ground, naval or air service during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under the laws administered by the Department of Defense. (For the current list of campaigns and expeditions for which a campaign badge was authorized, see the attachment. Visit <http://www.opm.gov/Veterans/html/vgmedal2.htm> for updates.)

VetGuide Appendix A: Wars, Campaigns and Expeditions of the Armed Forces Since WW II Which Qualify for Veterans Preference

War Service Creditable for Veterans Preference. In the absence of statutory definition for "war" and "campaign or expedition," OPM considers to be "wars" only those armed conflicts for which a declaration of war was issued by Congress. The title 38, U.S.C., definition of "period of war," which is used in determining benefits administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs, includes the Vietnam Era and other armed conflicts. That title 38 definition is NOT applicable for civil service purposes.

Thus the last "war" for which active duty is qualifying for Veterans preference is World War II. The inclusive dates for World War II service are December 7, 1941, through April 28, 1952.

Non-combat operations that are not qualifying for Veterans preference. Many medals are awarded for non-combat operations. These medals are not a basis for preference and include the following:

- Global War on Terrorism Service Medal for service from September 11, 2001, to date to be determined.
- The Medal of Merit for meritorious service in World War II.
- The Medal of Freedom for meritorious achievements or meritorious service to the United States on or after December 7, 1941, in the war against an enemy outside the continental limits of the United States.
- The Antarctica Service Medal for participating in a scientific, direct support, or exploratory operation on the Antarctic Continent.
- The National Defense Service Medal for honorable service between June 27, 1950 and July 27, 1954 or January 1, 1961 and August 14, 1974; or for the period between August 2, 1990, and November 30, 1995.
- The Armed Forces Service Medal for participation in a United States military operation deemed to be a significant activity for which there was no threat of encounter of foreign armed opposition or imminent threat of hostile action.

- The Armed Forces Reserve Medal for 10 years of honorable service in a Reserve component; or active duty service in a Reserve component on or after August 1, 1990; or volunteer service for active duty on or after August 1, 1990.

Military Operations Since 1937 for Which a Campaign or Expeditionary Medal Has Been Awarded, Except for Operations Occurring During a Declared War

Military personnel receive many awards and decorations. To help agencies make decisions concerning entitlement to Veterans preference and other benefits, the following list identifies those awards that are campaign and expeditionary medals. Any Armed Forces expeditionary Medal, whether listed here or not, is qualifying for Veterans preference. The Department of Defense, not OPM, determines who is entitled to receive a medal, and under what circumstances. The list below is derived from DoD 1348.33-M, Manual of Military Decorations and Awards.

DD 214, Certificate of Discharge or Separation from Active Duty, or other official documents issued by the branch of service are required as verification of eligibility for Veterans preference.
