

ABSTRACT

MONSIEUR PADEL

This is a collection of essays scanning childhood through young adulthood. The focus is a young woman dealing with what life has dealt her, good and bad. Some of the various essays touch on childhood problems, mischievous children, teenage relationships (family and the opposite sex). Other issues discussed are pregnancy and drug addiction.

Andria Danielle Watterson
December 2003