

ABSTRACT

WAITING

The single greatest event that has changed my life was the death of my father at a time when I was becoming safe in my skin. The themes of my poems consist of loss, death, and love. Poetry, for me, is the necessary giving of myself to the quiet waiting when I am alone and I think about friends, family and God. It's about making time, so that I can reflect on the important things in life.

Joseph Vincent Sabado
May 2004