International Education Week

International Education Week (IEW) is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide.

Monday, November 14

Starting November 14 through November 17, posters documenting Fresno State's involvement with international projects and collaboration will be displayed in the Henry Madden Library, 2nd Floor. Stop by and take a look at what our faculty, staff, and students are involved with around the campus and globe, and make sure to attend the reception on Thursday evening at 5:00 pm in the library. All are welcome to attend.

Tuesday, November 15

International Coffee Hour (ICH) • 2:00pm-3:00pm • Library 2206

The International Coffee Hour (ICH) program brings together people from different cultural backgrounds in the world to share the history, customs, economy, culture and current situations of their countries. This week's ICH highlights an International Student Panel.

Thursday, November 17

Food Security Project Resource Fair • 11:00am-1:30pm • University Student Union Balcony

In honor of National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week (NHHAW) the NHHAW Resource Fair, we will be providing information about on and off-campus resources in regards to - housing, unemployment, food insecurity, and public health programs.

International Showcase • 5:00pm-7:00pm • Henry Madden Library, 2nd Floor, Breezeway

Join us for our first International Showcase and Reception in honor of International Education Week to highlight the work of Fresno State faculty, staff, and students. This event is an opportunity to celebrate our university's accomplishments and bring focus to campus-wide efforts to internationalize our community.

Sunday, November 20

International Culture Night (ICN) • 7:00pm-9:00pm • Satellite Student Union

Come celebrate the culmination of International Education Week as International Student Services and Programs presents Fresno State's 33rd International Cultural Night! Doors open at 6:30 pm.
