Educational Benchmarking, Inc. (http://www.webebi.com/) provides both Web and paper assessments for “data-driven decision making”. Currently (1996) instruments are available for college and university housing, college union/student centers, fraternities/sororities, the first year experience, and four academic disciplines.

Noel-Levitz, Inc. (http://www.noellevitz.com/) grew out of and services Enrollment Service operations (recruiting, admissions, financial aid, and support functions) through a series of workshops, national meetings, consultations, and instruments. Instruments have been developed for both the general student and for specific student cohorts (athletes, adult learners, on-line students, etc). Recently, Noel-Levitz seems to be expanding beyond its traditional role of serving enrollment services through its work in developing instruments for campus career offices and support offices to assure student success.

The National Student Clearinghouse (http://www.studentclearinghouse.org/default.asp) is useful for studies tracking studies involving students either coming from or leaving Fresno state for other colleges or universities. Several of our outreach programs have a subscription to the service.

The Council for the Advancement of Standards in Higher Education (http://www.cas.edu/) has been the preeminent organization promoting standards for, conduct of, and assessment of functional areas within student affairs for the past 35 years. Some 35 professional organizations representing the subspecialties within the field cooperate in this effort to promote a framework upon which individual campuses can rely upon as documentation of best practices.
