

RESEARCH COMPLIANCE AT FRESNO STATE

Enhancing a University-Wide Culture of Compliance

Resources for Faculty

Institutional Ethics Committees

- Faculty overseeing environmental health and safety related research.
- Faculty overseeing research subject protection.

Research Compliance Officer

- Implemented a comprehensive research compliance program.
- Provides research compliance training to faculty, staff, and students.
- Monitors University-wide research compliance.
- Serves as a liaison for institutional ethics committees.
- Assists in the development of institutional research compliance policies and procedures.

Division of Research and Graduate Studies (DRGS)

Mission: Foster Excellence and Promote Success in Research and Graduate Education

Research Compliance Training for Faculty, Students and Staff

Fresno State has joined the Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative (CITI) Program to provide comprehensive research ethics education and training to all faculty, students, and administrators.

Available Online Training:

1. Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR)
2. Human Subjects Research (HSR)
3. Animal Care and Use (ACU)
4. Conflicts of Interest (COI)
5. Information Privacy and Security (IPS)
6. Good Clinical Practice (GCP)

To access CITI Program, please visit:

<http://bit.ly/CITIPROGRAM>