NEW! The Standard Critical Illness and Accident Insurance | Special Open Enrollment Period February 2020

Group Critical Illness insurance can help with costs from a serious illness that your medical insurance doesn’t cover. It pays you or a covered family member a lump sum to use toward expenses like deductibles, groceries or child care during recovery.

Group Accident insurance can help with costs that medical insurance doesn't cover if you're hurt in an accident. It pays you or a covered family member directly and you can use it toward your deductible, copay or daily expenses during recovery.
