

Athletic Corporation Internship California State University, Fresno

GRADUATE INTERNSHIPS FOR MEN'S AND WOMEN'S TENNIS Two-Year Program

ATHLETIC CORPORATION

10-months per year program
(Two positions to be filled)

Vacancy # A358

Salary: $1,000 per month stipend plus tuition for 6-9 units per semester at CSU Fresno paid over 10 months.

Internship Description

Fresno State Athletics Department is accepting applications for two full-time, 10-month (August-May) internships; one for Men's Tennis and one for Women's Tennis. These internship positions are designed to expose the interns to, and develop skills in, aspects of coaching and recruiting for a university tennis program while observing the principles of the Athletic Department's Mission Statement and its policies and procedures, as well as the rules and regulations of the university, the Mountain West Conference and the NCAA. During these internships, the individuals will gain an understanding of the philosophy and objectives of an intercollegiate athletics program. Successful applicants must pursue a graduate program in conjunction with this internship.

General Assignment

Under the direction of the Head Tennis Coach, the graduate intern will provide assistance in coaching and recruiting for the California State University, Fresno men or women's tennis team while observing the principles of the Athletic Department's Mission Statement and its policies and procedures, as well as the rules and regulations of the university, the Mountain West and the NCAA. Assisting in the recruitment of student-athletes will entail attending off-campus events for the purpose of evaluation and contact, coordinating mailing of recruiting information, planning campus visits of prospects and maintaining contact with the prospective student-athletes. Coaching assignments will include on-court coaching in an individual as well as team practice format; assisting in conducting, planning, and preparing tennis and conditioning practices; and coaching at away matches while also being in a supervisory capacity. The intern will be required to compete with Division I student-athletes in practice and put them in unique match play situations on a daily basis. The intern will coordinate travel arrangements for the team, assist with the scheduling of matches and practices, complete daily administrative paperwork for the program and attend departmental meetings.

Required Education, Experience, Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Bachelor's degree from an accredited four-year institution by July 1, 2015
- Acceptance (or anticipated acceptance) into a graduate program at Fresno State
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Playing experience at the Division I or professional level is preferred
- Ability to communicate and work effectively with enrolled student-athletes, administrators, alumni and the campus community
- Ability to:
 - recruit elite level student-athletes
 - scout opponents and provide coach and players with effective and detailed game plans
 - learn the National Collegiate Athletic Association rules and regulations
 - support the gender goals of the University
 - maintain a courteous and professional attitude
