

Create one centralized Leadership institute that will provide training and workshops, bring in guest speakers, and eventually provide some sort of Achievement Certificate.

CURRENT CHALLENGE:

There are multiple proposed and ongoing Leadership programs being developed on campus by and for students, faculty, and staff.

PROPOSED SOLUTION:

Create one centralized Leadership institute (not specific to one school or college) that will provide training and workshops, bring in guest speakers and eventually provide some sort of Achievement Certificate.

BENEFITS TO FRESNO STATE:

Combine resources into one centralized location instead of multiple people doing the same thing.
