

Career Development Center: “Opening Doors and Making House Calls”

Brilliant

Student Appointments

- Over 2,600 appointments
- 52 Classroom presentations impacting more than 1,539 students
- Evening Hours in Henry Madden Library
- Zoom career webinars for students in the College of Health & Human Services, Graduate Net Initiative, and Division of Graduate Studies

Career Fairs

- Fall 2015 – Over 900 students and 165 employers at Satellite Student Union
- Spring 2016 – Over 1,500 students and 190 employers at Save Mart Center
- 1,474 student responses and 258 employer responses collected
- More than 66% of employers indicated the need to fill vacancies and summer employment positions

Exciting

Professional Clothes Closet

- Over 160 students served
- 275+ garments distributed
- Alumni and community donations
- Student and faculty support - academic courses and organizations

Dining Success Dinner

- Over 260+ students attended
- Partnerships with Student Affairs, College of Health & Human Services, Craig School of Business, Jordan College of Agriculture and Technology Sciences

Collaborative Partners

- Alumni Association, Academic Advising Centers, Career Council, Craig School of Business, Jordan College of Agriculture and Technology Sciences, Lyles College of Engineering, College of Social Sciences, Office of Institutional Effectiveness, and University Advising Center
- Community Organizations

Sharing

Career Development in Academics

- Over 350+ career counseling hours at eight Schools and Colleges
- Faculty Learning Community (12 faculty) for integrating career assignments
- World Ag Expo in Tulare County - 50+ students and faculty attended
- Presentation - National Career Development Association Conference in June 2016 in Chicago, IL

Assessment & Evaluation

- EBI-Skyfactor Benchmarking Tool, Qualtrics surveys, and Tableau

Transitioning

Industry Clusters

- Focus on Industry clusters and transferrable skills leading to lucrative careers

Future Projects

- Career Development Course
- Career Readiness Certificate