

Making Fiscal Sense

The risks and rewards of investing come to life in Dr. K.C. Chen's "Student Investment Fund" class.

Under Dr. Chen's guidance, Fresno State students invest $100,000 in private funds and capital from the Craig School of Business endowment. While he helps them make final investment decisions, Dr. Chen does not prevent students from making mistakes. It's those lessons that give them the tools and instincts to succeed in a career.

At Fresno State, we're creating tomorrow's business leaders by investing in today's talented students.
