

Business Builder

Many of us dream about owning our own business. As director of The Lyles Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship at Fresno State, Dr. Timothy Stearns helps people make their dreams come true.

By nurturing good ideas into successful businesses, Lyles Center experts cultivate a climate of entrepreneurial thinking and creativity. The payoff for Tim's encouragement, innovation and enterprise is more jobs and inspiration for more dreamers. The people of Fresno State are building the future of the New California—one idea at a time.
