 Andy "Pops" Olson ~ Eartha Kitt

AMICVS et ANGELVS
The Bulldog Pride Fund at Fresno State salutes and honors the memory of William N. Beck

A bequest of $100,000 from the estate of William N. Beck (1929-2007), pictured with Jared Lindo, was entrusted to the Bulldog Pride Fund.

This represents the largest gift to an alumni association scholarship endowment at any of the California State University's 23 campuses.

A loyal Fresno State College graduate (Class of '52), Beck's legacy will support student scholarships in perpetuity. Thank you so much, Bill. You're a dear "friend and angel."

About the Bulldog Pride Fund

Founded in 2005 and officially recognized in 2006, the Bulldog Pride Fund (BPF) is an endowment that provides an annuity to support student scholarships at Fresno State.

The BPF is maintained under the auspices of the Fresno State Alumni Association, a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization recognized by the Internal Revenue Service.

The BPF is administered by the Scholarship Office, Division of Student Affairs. The scholarship criteria are that a Fresno State "student(s)" have "good academic standing" and have "demonstrated pride in the community."

Donations are deposited into an endowment account that is invested in a diverse portfolio with the assistance and guidance of Merrill Lynch. Annual earnings (interest) of the BPF are used to fund scholarships, while the principal continues to earn interest in perpetuity for future scholarships.

The BPF accepts cash, checks and credit cards. The BPF also welcomes gifts such as securities, real property, corporate matching gifts and bequests.

BPF donations are tax-deductible to the full extent of the law. A donation made today will give — in some capacity — tomorrow and beyond.

"Thanks to BPF donors!" Jared Lindo, Class of '09

My time as a Fresno State student has been valuable. Every moment has been filled with learning and growing experiences inside and outside the classroom. Fresno State has given me much more than a first-class education; it has given me the opportunity to build character and grow as an individual.

Three years ago, when I received my initial scholarship from the Bulldog Pride Fund, I realized there were others in the community who held the same values that I have found at Fresno State. The Bulldog Pride Fund is fueled by understanding individuals in the community who have entrusted their treasures to support students. This great generosity has made it possible for me to attend and graduate from Fresno State.

My future personal and professional success won't be found in what I have achieved, but in what I continue to support. I pledge to contribute to the Bulldog Pride Fund and to donate my time as a mentor to future students for the rest of my life.

I offer heartfelt and sincere thanks to the donors of the Bulldog Pride Fund who have helped make my educational dream come true.

three-time BPF scholar, donor and graduate
