

CSU, Fresno Distinguished Alumni Workshop

Date: March 5, 2016

Time: 8:00am-4:00pm

Workshop Title: Enhancing Communication for Individuals with Communication Disorders in Health Care and Educational Settings

Presenter: Michael Burns, Ph.D., CCC-SLP

Learner Outcomes:

1. Explain the impact of communication disorders on accessing health care and educational services.
2. Describe the communication skills training health care and educational professionals currently receive related to interacting with individuals with communication disorders.
3. Discuss the role SLPs play in helping to enhance and support communication between individuals with communication disorders and these professionals.
4. Develop innovative ways to enhance communication between individuals with communication disorders and their health care providers and educators.

Time Ordered Agenda:

8:00am: Registration

8:30am: Impact of communication disorders in health care and educational settings

9:30am: Trends in communication skills training for health care providers

10:15am: Break

10:30am: Trends in communication skills training for educators

11:45am: LUNCH (on your own)

12:45pm: Evolving role of the SLP in enhancing communication

1:30pm: Innovations in enhancing communication

2:15pm: BREAK

2:30pm: Next steps in enhancing communication

3:45pm: Wrap Up

4:00pm: Evaluation

For More Information contact:

Debbie Moore dmoore@sivrehab.com

Sabrina Nii sanii@csufresno.edu

This program meets the qualifications for up to 6 hours of Continuing Professional Development Credit (CPD) Intermediate Level, for Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology Board. CSU Fresno PDP #303.