Arthur Safstrom Service Award

The Fresno State Alumni Association presents the Arthur Safstrom Service Award to an alumnus/alumna, faculty, staff or friend of California State University, Fresno who has given outstanding service to the Fresno State Alumni Association and/or the University.

For 29 years, the late Arthur Safstrom served as the University's director of educational related activities and was instrumental in the building of the College Union. A conference room in the union is named in his honor. He was the student body president of Fresno State College in 1931-1932, a member of the Fresno State Alumni Association Board of Directors and the 1960 Distinguished Alumnus of the Year.

Administration of the Award

- Nominees for the Arthur Safstrom Service Award shall be alumni, faculty, staff or friends of California State University, Fresno.
- Service to the Fresno State Alumni Association and/or the University will be the prime factor of award eligibility.
- The Safstrom Service Award recipient must be able to attend the awards ceremony.

Please note that current Fresno State employees must be nominated for reasons outside of their actual job description.

*All nominations will be reviewed for completion. Incomplete nominations will be sent back to the nominator for resubmission. Attachments may not be used in lieu of answering nomination questions.

Once nominated, alumni who do not receive the Arthur Safstrom Service Award will be considered for the next two years for the award. Once the three years has expired, nominations must be updated and resubmitted. Additional material such as updated biographical information may be added to the nominee's file within the three year time span for future years' review.

The Alumni Award Selection Committee will meet and review all nominations. The Committee shall have the discretion to accept or reject any of the candidates in each area. The Executive Director of the Fresno State Alumni Association will notify the winners of the awards.

The Arthur Safstrom Service Award recipient will be honored at an awards gala hosted by the Fresno State Alumni Association. The recipient will also be hosted in the President's skybox during a home football game.
