

The Armenian Studies Program and Armenian Students Organization

invite you to the

15th Annual Armenian Film Festival

I Hate Dogs!: The Last Survivor (2005) (Sweden)

Directors: PeÅ Holmquist & Suzanne Khardalian; RT 29 min.

Garbis Hagopian-Ghazarian is a dynamic person of 99 years old, who lives in Paris. He is one of the last survivors of the Armenian Genocide. He has a deep secret that has made him hate dogs. The film is about the art of survival.

..... Fresno Premiere-Featured Documentary

SaroyanLand (2013) (Turkey)

Director: Lusin Dink; RT 72 minutes

SaroyanLand is a docu-drama focusing on the journey of famous writer William Saroyan to the birthplace of his Armenian family Bitlis, in Turkey in 1964. While retaking the same road, the film aims to understand Saroyan's unique attitude to belonging, witnessing the self-discovery of a man who followed the traces of his Armenian ancestors.

Featured Short Film-The Director will be Present

Shesh-Besh (2012) (USA)

Director: Anahid Nazarian; RT 16:45 minutes

J C & Son Automotive is an auto garage in Fresno where a group of Armenian men and other locals gather daily to play backgammon and catch up on the local gossip. The business of the auto garage seems almost a side aspect of what is in essence a men's social club, the main focus being the game of backgammon. Those who come here continue the old country tradition of their fathers and grandfathers of meeting at social gathering places and enjoying each other's company.

Friday, February 17, 2017

7:00-9:30PM

Industrial Technology Building,

Room 101, Fresno State

(corner of Barstow and Campus Drive-

Free parking in all adjacent lots)

Free admission

The films to be screened or the order of screening is subject to change.

