The Armenian Studies Program and Homenetmen Fresno Sassoon Chapter present

“The 44 Day Disaster: Why It Happened as It Did”

With

Tatul Hakobyan

Independent political analyst Tatul Hakobyan will discuss the major causes of the Artsakh War of September-November 2020, and analyze the reasons for the defeat.

Hakobyan has been a close observer of the political situation in Armenia following the war, and will discuss the various currents in the Armenian political scene. He will also discuss the the broader regional aspects of the war, including the involvement of Turkey.

Hakobyan is the author of three books: Karabakh Diary: Black and Green, Armenians and Turks: A View from Ararat, and Death Valley: The 44-Day Disaster.

Hakobyan will bring his years of experience to answering questions about the lead-up to the war and also the aftermath of the war.

This will be followed by an opportunity for questions from the audience.

Tatul Hakobyan is a journalist and an analyst on the Artsakh War and Armenian-Turkish relations. He is the coordinator of the Ani Armenian Research Center.
