

California State University Fresno

AH 1T/HUMANITIES 0001 T
Special Offering for the ACADEMIC DECATHLON

Course Description:

A combination of relevant study of cultural and critical topics with strong reasoning skills designed for high school students who are members of the Academic Decathlon teams primarily in Fresno County.

Participants in the Academic Decathlon earn 2 -4 units of credit upon successful completion of the course requirements: 40-80 hours in an instructional setting and test scores in the areas of mathematics, science, fine arts, economics, language and literature, social science, speech and writing along with three workshops given by California State University, Fresno professors in the above disciplines. Each year the Academic Decathlon has a different theme and the Fresno State workshops cover this theme along with the areas of study listed above. Students also match wits during a "Super Quiz" based solely on the designated theme for that year.
