

LEON S. PETERS ETHICS LECTURE

Preparing Students to Thrive:

Cultivating A Growth Mindset
For Moral and Performance Character

Eduardo Briceño

March 13, 3-4 PM
Education, Room 140

Are personal qualities fixed or malleable? Our answer to this question can have a big impact on our moral values and competence. This talk will discuss key research into education and the idea of “growth mindset.” It will consider the implications that the growth mindset has for moral and character education.

Eduardo Briceño is CEO of Mindset Works. Eduardo helps schools build learner capacity and success through practices that instill growth mindset beliefs and foundational learning skills in students, teachers and the broader community. Briceño has MBA and M.A. degrees from Stanford University.
