Human Well-Being: The Untold Global Story

Tony Carr

March 28, 6-7 PM
Alice Peters Auditorium (UBC)

The human race has made remarkable progress in pursuit of well-being. Quality of life has significantly improved across the globe. This talk will review the evidence and provide insight into the global pursuit of human well-being—drawing on current research including the results of a recent study of well-being published by Springer in 2017.

Tony Carr is President of Halloran Philanthropies and former CEO of Fresno Heart Hospital
