

Five Years of WAR IN IRAQ

What have we learned from five years of war?

Wednesday March 12, 2008
6-8 pm

Peters Auditorium
In the Student Recreation Center

An Interdisciplinary Panel including:

- Ellen Gruenbaum (Anthropology)
- Don Stillwell (History)
- Kevin Ayotte (Communications)

Sponsors: Anthropology Club, Political Science Club, Philosophy Club, and The Ethics Center

Contact Heather Balcom: hbalcom@csufresno.edu

- Andrew Fiala (Philosophy)
- Yashaiya Abosch (Political Science)

Sponsors: Anthropology Club, Political Science Club, Philosophy Club, and The Ethics Center

Contact Heather Balcom: hbalcom@csufresno.edu

In what ways has the U.S. military presence in Iraq changed the world?

- ❖ How have cultural and social divisions in the region changed?
- ❖ What developments have we seen in how we talk about war?
- ❖ How has this war impacted the “Just War” tradition?
- ❖ In what ways is the political climate different then it was five years ago?

Each speaker will give a 10-12 minute presentation. One hour is reserved for discussion.

MAP