

LEON S. PETERS ETHICS LECTURE

Legal Ethics in the Criminal Justice System

November 30, 4-6 PM
North Gym 118

The rule of law in a democratic society depends upon the ethical commitments of legal professionals working in an adversarial system. This panel, intended for students, will discuss legal ethics and case studies, offering perspectives from the bench and the bar.

Panelists will include:

- Phillip Talbert (Moderator), United States Attorney for the Eastern District of California
- The Honorable Dale Drozd, United States District Court Judge
- Charles Lee, Chief, Fresno Office of the Federal Defender
- Kirk Sherriff, Chief, Fresno Office of the U.S. Attorney
- Dr. Tina Fernandes Botts, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, California State University, Fresno

Students interested in Criminology and Law are invited to attend.

Contact: Andrew Fiala: afiala@csufresno.edu, <http://www.csutresno.edu/ethicscenter>

Cosponsored: US Attorney's Office, San Joaquin College of Law, Fresno State Department of Criminology