

LEON S. PETERS ETHICS LECTURE

The Reformation at 500

October 26, 3-5 PM
North Gym 118

In 1517 Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the church house door. The Protestant Reformation followed, along with development of secularism, the rise of modern nation-states, and the development of the idea of religious toleration. Discussing this 500 year legacy will be a diverse panel, including:

- Douglas Schoelles, Pastor, Concordia Luther Church, Kingsburg
- Maritere Lopez, Professor of History, Fresno State University
- Darin Lenz, Professor of History, Fresno Pacific University
- Robert Maldonado, Professor of Philosophy, Fresno State University
- Anna Hamre, Professor Emerita of Music, Fresno State University

This event will be followed by a second panel from 7-9 PM (also Oct. 26) at Saint Paul Catholic Newman Center (1572 E Barstow Ave.), featuring clergy from diverse denominations. Also on Sunday, Oct. 29, there will be a Reformation inspired Festival of Music at Hope Lutheran Church (364 E. Barstow) sponsored by Hope Lutheran and the Fresno Community Chorus.
