

Special screening of acclaimed film “Waking in Oak Creek” followed by a panel discussion.

In August, 2012, the town of Oak Creek Wisconsin was rocked by hate when six worshipers at a local Sikh Temple were killed by a white supremacist during prayer services. “Waking in Oak Creek” tells the inspiring story of how the community responded to one of the deadliest hate crimes in recent U.S. history, and worked together with law enforcement to overcome tragedy and stand up to hate (film length 33min).

Join in a discussion of Oak Creek’s empowering response to the tragedy at the Sikh Temple of Wisconsin, and ways in which law enforcement and the community can work together to create a united front against hate. Representatives from the United States Attorney’s Office, Fresno State Ethics Center, Fresno State Department of Criminology, College of Social Sciences, Sikh Council of Central California, Islamic Cultural Center of Fresno, Fresno Police Department, Fresno County Sheriff’s Office, Fresno County District Attorney’s Office, Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Alpha Phi Sigma National Criminal Justice Honor Society will be there.

This important gathering of neighbors, community advocates, and law enforcement leadership is being provided at no cost, and pre-registration is not required. Location: North Gym 118, Fresno State University, 5241 N. Maple Ave., Fresno, Wednesday September 14, 6:00pm – 8:00pm (visit www.fresnostate.edu/map for a campus map – North Gym 118 (NG) is next to Warmerdam Field and the Campus Dr. turnabout).

- Light snacks will be served, courtesy of the Sikh Council of Central California and the CSUF Dept. of Criminology and Dept. of Philosophy
- FREE parking code at: www.fresnostate.edu/artshum/ethicscenter
- Questions? Contact Sean Vassar at Sean.Vassar@usdoj.gov or (916) 554-2907

