Justice, Mercy, & The Death Penalty

Trudy Conway & Vicki Schieber

Wednesday, February 20
5-6 pm
Alice Peters Auditorium (UBC)

A discussion of the ethics of capital punishment and an overview of the movement to abolish the death penalty. Topics will include retributive justice, restorative justice, the possibility of forgiveness, as well as real world examples of how the system of capital punishment works in the U.S.

Trudy Conway is Professor of Philosophy at Mount St. Mary’s University; Vickie Schieber is Chair of Murder Victim’s Families for Human Rights. Together they have co-edited a new book, Where Justice and Mercy Meet: Catholic Opposition to the Death Penalty.
