

Religious Liberty Discussion & Lecture

Religion in Public Schools: A Vehicle for Inclusion

School districts are seeking model programs to improve campus climates so that all students feel connected and supported. This seminar places an emphasis on religious liberties and religion in schools and brings nationally-recognized speakers to help lead the collaborative discussion.

Featured Presenters

- > Rabbi Moline, President of the National Interfaith Alliance
- > Michael Smith, Founding Partner of Lozano Smith
- > Andrew Fiala, Director of the Ethics Center, Fresno State University

Who Should Attend

School board members, Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, Curriculum and Instruction administrators, Directors of Student Services; and site administrators.

Date and Time

Thursday, May 2, 2019
3:00pm - 5:00pm

Location

California State University, Fresno
Kremen School of Education, ED 140
5241 N. Maple Ave.
Fresno, CA 93740

Cost & RSVP

There is no cost to attend this event, but RSVP is kindly requested at LozanoSmith.com/event.php?id=2172

Ethics Lecture: Interfaith Perspectives on Religious Liberty

The Ethics Center at Fresno State invites you to a discussion of religious liberty and religious diversity on the “National Day of Prayer” by Rabbi Jack Moline.

Jack Moline is the President of the National Interfaith Alliance, Rabbi Emeritus of Agudas Achim Congregation in Alexandria, Virginia and adjunct faculty at the Jewish Theological Seminary and the Virginia Theological Seminary.

Cosponsored by the Interfaith Alliance of Central California.

Date and Time

Thursday, May 2, 2019
5:30pm - 7:00pm

Location

Student Recreation Center at Fresno State
Peters Educational Center
5010 N. Woodrow Ave.
Fresno, CA 93740

Cost

There is no cost to attend this event.

