Prof. Jim Flanery

Professor Emeritus Jim Flanery, of the Mass Communication and Journalism department, taught at Fresno State from 1973 to 1977 and from 1997 to 2002.

He first came to Fresno State as a student, where he obtained his bachelor's degree. He then received his master of science from the University of California, Los Angeles and his doctorate from Northwestern University.

Flanery was an editor and journalist for the Omaha World-Herald for more than 20 years. He served as the department's first Roger Tatarian Endowed Chair of Professional Journalism.

In 2003, the Jim Flanery Print Journalism Scholarship was created in honor of his retirement.
