

Edward Said Lecture Series

Friday, Sept. 25, 2015

Dr. David Lloyd, Distinguished Professor of English, UC Riverside
"Responsibilities of the Worldly Intellectual after Edward Said"
UBC 191, 3 PM

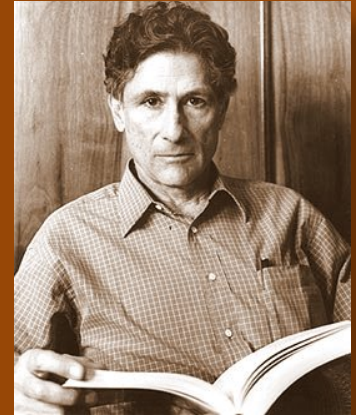

Monday, Oct. 12, 2015

Dr. Nadia Latif, Religious Studies, Georgia State University
"Orientalism: Its Genealogies and its Legacies"
UBC 191, 5-7 PM

Monday, Oct. 26, 2015

Dr. R. Radhakrishnan, Chancellor's Professor of English and Comparative Literature,
School of Humanities, UC Irvine
"Edward Said: The Non-humanist Humanist"
UBC 191, 5-7 PM

Edward Said

Friday, Nov. 6, 2015

Mini Conference

Universities at the Crossroad: The Assault on Academic Freedom

UBC 191, 10 AM-12 PM

Dr. Richard Falk, Professor Emeritus of International Law, Princeton University &
UC Santa Barbara; Former UN Special Rapporteur on Palestinian human rights
"Edward Said's Humanism and the Rejection of the State Department's Definition of Anti-Semitism"

Azadeh Shahshahani, President of the National Lawyers Guild
"Censoring Palestine at the University: Growing Threats to Academic Freedom"

Dr. Vida Samiian, California Scholars for Academic Freedom,
Professor of Linguistics, Dean Emerita, College of Arts and Humanities, CSU Fresno
"What is to be done: An Activist Agenda"

*The Conference is sponsored by the Middle East Studies Program and co-sponsored by:
California Scholars for Academic Freedom,
Palestine Freedom Project Student Organization at Fresno State,
Harnish Lectures, Fresno Center for Non Violence,
Peace Fresno, WILPF, and Reedley Peace Center*