Annual Soroptimist Music Scholarship in Memory of Evelyn Berg 2010-2011

Guidelines for the Soroptimist Music Scholarship in memory of Evelyn Berg to benefit a qualified undergraduate (junior year) and a graduate student pursuing a degree in music under the auspices of the California State University, Fresno, School of Arts and Humanities.

1. One scholarship for an undergraduate junior year student pursuing a degree in music, and one scholarship for a graduate student pursuing an advanced degree in music, each of whom shall demonstrate financial need and overall scholastic excellence and achievement.
2. Criteria for eligibility are:
  - a. must be pursuing a music degree as a full-time undergraduate (junior year) or a full-time graduate student.
  - b. must have a cumulative minimum GPA of 3.0 earned over the last one year of academic instruction.
  - c. a preference may be considered for female students upon deciding between equally qualified candidates.
  - d. the student must meet all of the general eligibility requirements established by the Financial Aid Office at California State University, Fresno.
  - e. a narrative statement from applicant that includes educational and professional career goals.
  - f. a nomination letter from a department of music faculty member.
  - g. a performance resume that includes academic courses with grades.
  - h. the student awarded this scholarship must timely submit a letter of acceptance and thanks to the donor and shall thereupon be designated an EVELYN BERG Student Scholar; will be announced during the music department convocation during the Fall 2010 and may be announced as such at a College of Arts and Humanities ceremony; and upon showing proof of Fresno State registration shall be awarded from the account, payable in two (2) equal installments on or before September 1, 2010 and February 1, 2011.
  - i. any monies so awarded constitute an unconditional recognition of an established record of scholastic merit and student excellence in contemplation of further educational and/or professional growth.
  - j. this scholarship specifies that full-time student status in good standing shall at all times be a pre-requisite to eligibility to receive financial assistance.
  - k. in the event an award recipient becomes ineligible to receive the award for any reason including without limitation a change of major or a loss of full-time student status in good standing, such recipient shall immediately return any monies remaining on hand and shall be disqualified from receiving/shall forfeit any further assistance hereunder. Whereupon any such returned and forfeited monies may be awarded to another student in the manner specified by the criteria as stated above.
3. Deadline for application is February 26, 2010. All materials (application, nomination letter, GPA, and performance/academic resume) must be received in the department of music office by the deadline.

4. All applicants will be notified of the results no later than eight weeks after the application deadline; or contacted by a Scholarship Committee Member.
5. For additional information contact Dr. Gary P. Gilroy, Scholarship Committee chair, 559-278-2489.

Please complete and return the application form with your nomination letter, GPA, performance/academic resume, and narrative to the Department of Music Office.
