

FRESNO STATE DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE

Guidelines for Dance Scholarship Audition

*The Fresno State Application Filing deadline is December 4, 2020.

Each student in the Dance major explores, training, performance, design, technology and research in a multifaceted liberal arts context. The Dance major involves students in creative inquiry, embodied, inventive collaboration and skillful expression of ideas in order to prepare them for lives of leadership, service, and excellence in the arts, culture and business of the future.

Student Scholarship Audition Checklist:

Please complete ALL FIVE of the following steps prior to the final day of auditions (November 25, 2020)

- 1. Record your Audition Video: Record and submit your 3-minute audition video via the Acting Scholarship Student Registration Form link below.
 - 2. Dance Scholarship Student Registration Form: <https://forms.gle/efd7DDbSMjrXZMVb8>
 - 3. Fresno State Application (Due December 4): <https://www2.calstate.edu/apply>
 - 4. Fresno State Scholarship Application (Please complete by November 25):
<http://www.fresnostate.edu/studentaffairs/financialaid/scholarships/scholarshipapplication/index.html>
 - 5. Teacher Recommendation Form (To be filled out by your drama teacher):
<https://forms.gle/ZS28SPNN8ppA8enz6>
-

Dance Audition Video Submission Guidelines:

- You will have 2 minutes to perform your dance piece.
- You will be evaluated in terms of technique, memory, timing, and stage presence.
- Video should be recorded from a far enough distance so that your full range of motion is in view. Please record in a well-lit and quiet room. Video should be filmed in landscape (horizontal) format.

For more information, please contact:

Kenneth Balint | kbalint@mail.fresnostate.edu

Professor of Theatre and Dance, Dance Advisor