Target Audience: Please describe the intended audience for your course and any specific organizations, associations, professions, etc., useful in marketing your course.

Course Objectives/Student Learning Outcomes:

Course Description: (150 words maximum)

Instructor Description (40 words maximum) as it would appear in CGE promotional materials:

Notes To Instructors:

- Course fees for academic credit courses:
  1. If the instructor salary is paid by Continuing and Global Education (CGE) based upon the California State University Extension Salary Schedule, the course fee is set in accordance with the University policy. (A pay scale can be obtained through CGE.)
  2. If course expenses, including instructor's salary, are paid by the requesting agency or organization, participants are charged a per unit fee.
- California State University, Fresno faculty are restricted on the amount of time they may devote to, and the salary which they may earn by, outside employment. This information should provide the needed accountability in this area, as well as to insure that all extension courses are regulated through the CGE.
- If you anticipate instructional expenses beyond regular salary, authorized travel, or routine publicity, prior approval must be obtained from the Associate Vice President or Associate Dean of CGE.
- Grading System for Non-credit Courses:

Students can earn the grade of Completed Program (CP) if they attend and complete the course at the specified days and times. The grade of Not Completed Program (NCP) will be given to a student who does not attend or who does not complete the course.
- The fees collected for CEUs will be retained solely by Continuing and Global Education.
