Meet. Learn. Grow.

University-level non-credit courses, lectures and field trips for those age 50 and better.

CELEBRATING 10 YEARS OF LEARNING FOR THE LOVE OF LEARNING

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at Fresno State offers learning opportunities to those age 50 or better. No entrance requirements, tests, grades or papers – just learning for enjoyment, personal growth and intellectual stimulation with like-minded people. Come learn for the love of learning!

Membership Information

$10 Summer Special Celebrating our 10th Anniversary!

At Fresno State's OLLI, you choose how involved you wish to be, depending on your availability and interests.

General Sessions and Short Courses are open ONLY to OLLI members. Seating is limited for some events so be sure to send in your registration as soon as possible. Non-members may attend Field Trips by paying the non-member registration fees for those individual trips (see details under Field Trip listings in this brochure).

Membership fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. Members who must cancel their Field Trips or Short Courses will be refunded only if their space can be filled.

You will receive a confirmation letter once we receive your registration and payment. We cannot hold space without a paid registration.

Parking

OLLI incurs a parking charge; however, the OLLI leadership has decided not to pass this cost on to you. Members may request a parking permit by checking the option on the registration form. If you request a permit, parking details will be mailed to you. We respectfully ask that you request a permit only if necessary. If there are multiple OLLI members in your household or social group, please consider carpooling to events. Your consideration maintains OLLI's ability to offer quality programs at an affordable price.

OLLI is not responsible for parking citations received by those not in compliance with campus parking regulations.

If you need a disability-related accommodation or wheelchair access information, please contact the OLLI office at 559.278.0008 or send us an email at osher@csufresno.edu. Requests should be made at least one week in advance of the event.

OLLI Summer 2015 General Session Descriptions

1:30 - 3 p.m. Location: Satellite Student Union

JUNE 8
MONDAY
Boom and Bust: The Politics of the California Budget

Presenter: Dr. Jeffrey Cummins

The California budget has been the major issue confronting the state over the last few decades. We will discuss the roots of California's budget problems, current conditions, and what it will take to avoid these problems in the future. Dr. Jeff Cummins is associate professor of Political Science at California State University, Fresno. He is the author of "Boom and Bust: The Politics of the California Budget", and co-author of "California: The Politics of Diversity."

1:30 - 3 p.m. Location: Satellite Student Union

JUNE 10
WEDNESDAY
Social Media Demystified!

Presenter: Betsy A. Hayes, APR, Fellow PRSA

Join Fresno State Public Relations professor Betsy Hays for an afternoon of fun and adventure as she explores and demystifies the fun and often confusing world of social media. You'll learn the ins and outs of Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, and why you might want to consider jumping in (the water's fine!) or stepping up your social media game. Bring your questions!

Ms. Hays is an author, keynote speaker and workshop presenter who specializes in social media, public relations, communication and career topics. She is also the lead Public Relations professor for the Department of Mass Communication and Journalism at Fresno State — a post she has held since 1999.

1:30 - 3 p.m. Location: Satellite Student Union

JUNE 25
THURSDAY
Time, Money & Happiness

Presenter: Dr. Robert Levine

This discussion will center on the different ways that people think about, feel about and use time around the world and how these differences impact the quality of their lives. Dr. Levine has been a professor of Psychology at Fresno State, with stints as chairperson of the department and as associate dean of the College of Science and Mathematics. Over the years he's also served as a visiting professor in Brazil, Japan and Sweden and most recently, as a Fellow in the Institute of Advanced Study at Durham University in the UK.

1:30 - 3 p.m. Location: Satellite Student Union

JULY 8
WEDNESDAY
The Real Story of Agriculture

Presenter: Ryan Jacobsen

Agriculture is a complex, risky venture, operating in a world with complex regulations, minimal resources and sometimes mystifying turns in public opinion. Ryan Jacobsen is CEO of the 3,500-member Fresno County Farm Bureau and a fourth generation farmer who will explain modern agriculture, its challenges and successes, and what he's doing to help more people understand this vital industry.

When Scotland Turned Tartan: A History of Scottish National Dress

Brenna Ariel Barks, MSc

Very few things conjure up a particular culture and country than national dress, be that the saree of India, the kimono of Japan, or Highland dress in Scotland. Except that the kilt was not widely adopted – even in the Highlands – until the 17th century, and the fabric we now think of as tartan only came into being in the 16th century. Looking back at the origins of both the kilt and tartan through archaeological evidence and art and material culture, and explaining the evolution of what is now considered "Scottish Dress" from its earliest origins to Andy Murray's recent wedding attire, this class will examine the historical influences on Scotland and how a single fabric captured the romantic fantasies of the world.

Sex and Human Sacrifice at Moche Huacas

Dr. James Kus

The Moche culture dominated northern coastal Peru from about the time of Christ to about 800 A.D. For more than a century, our knowledge of the Moche came mainly from the study of their ceramics, which are among the best in the ancient world - both as sculptural models and as surfaces on which elaborate scenes were painted. Among the subjects shown on the Moche ceramics are detailed sexual scenes, as well as evidence of human sacrifice. Since the late 1980s, however, impressive new archaeological excavations at a number of major Moche sites have added much to our knowledge of the Moche culture.

Alcatraz (Bus Trip)

Members - $85, Non Members - $95
Maximum Capacity: 50
Last Day to Register - July 10, 2015

Price includes roundtrip transportation and admission.

Alcatraz and history go hand in hand. Once home to some of America's most notorious criminals, Alcatraz is best known as one of the world's most legendary prisons. Many people, though, are unaware of the wealth of other stories to be learned on the island. Alcatraz is now home to rare flowers and plants, marine wildlife, and thousands of roosting and nesting sea birds. Civil War-era buildings dotting the island give insight into the 19th century when the island served as both a harbor defense fort and a military prison.
