

CCASSC Action Minutes

March 3-4, 2011

1. Subsidized Employment Data: There is interest in collecting subsidized employment information from as many counties as possible. This information will be used to publicize the value of subsidized employment. Suggested was production of a booklet that highlights cost/benefits and success stories.

ACTION: Patty Poulsen will begin work on this project

2. "Making Ends Meet" Poverty Reduction Brochure: A prototype was reviewed.

ACTION: Patty Poulsen will finalize a color brochure for each county, distribute, and post on CCASSC website.

3. Dr. Donna Beagle Poverty 101 workshop: CCASSC and Fresno County will be sponsoring two days of this workshop for staff in the Central Region.

ACTION: Patty Poulsen is the contact.

4. CWS/CMS New User Regional Funding Methodology: Still no response from Greg Rose regarding the letter sent by CCASSC Directors expressing concerns about methodology used.

ACTION: Kelly Woodard and Mary Sawicki will follow up with Greg and let him know CCASSC is still awaiting a response.

5. CAPP: General discussion about the federally funded California Partners for Permanency (CAPP) project.

ACTION: Fresno County volunteered to provide CCASSC with a CAPP overview and presentation on their "institutional analysis" at next CCASSC meeting.

6. CCASSC Student Stipends: 2011 student applications are in for consideration.

ACTION: Sal Montana will convene the review committee to evaluate the applications and select the 2011 winners.

7. 2011 Budget: The 2010 budget and expenditures was reviewed and approved. 2011 revenue/membership fee data is still being collected.

ACTION: David Foster will provide members with a final 2011 budget including current revenue figures prior to the June meeting.
