Personal Statement

Submit a separate one-page, typed statement of your reasons for choosing to complete your BSN degree and your career goals upon completion (e.g., management position, further education, nursing educator). Briefly discuss your expectations of time commitment and the skills you believe are required for success in the RN-BSN program. Briefly outline how you plan to make adjustments in your life in order to achieve this success. Use 12-point Times New Roman font with one-inch margins top, bottom, and sides. This statement may be used in awarding additional points; content, grammar, spelling, and syntax will be assessed.

Criteria for Admission

All applicants must:

1. Have a current, valid, and clear RN license
2. Be a graduate of a California BRN-approved regionally accredited ADN program
3. Live within the Fresno State service area.
4. Have completed all prerequisite courses with minimum 3.0 GPA
5. Have a cumulative 3.0 GPA

Additional points will be calculated for:

1. Graduate of Fresno City College, College of the Sequoias, or West Hills College ADN program
2. Completion of all lower division coursework (e.g., A-E, co-requisites)
3. No repeats in Prerequisite coursework
4. No repeats in Nursing coursework
5. Be currently employed as RN or have graduated from an ADN program within the past 12 months
6. Veteran or spouse of veteran
7. Passing score on writing assessment

Applicants will be ranked by GPA (prerequisite, cumulative), and additional points earned on secondary criteria listed.

Admissions Checklist

Admission to Fresno State

You must have applied as an Undergraduate for Fall/15 admission to Fresno State by November 30, 2014 in order to be considered for admission in the Fall/15 RN-BS cohort. For second-degree students, Postbaccalaureate applications for Fresno State can be found on www.mentor.org and should be submitted by the RN-BSN application deadline. We cannot consider any RN-BSN applicants who are not accepted into the university.

Official Transcripts

One sealed, official, hard copy from each university or college attended since high school must be submitted to Fresno State Admissions by the posted deadlines (see website). A second sealed, official, hard copy from each must be included with the RN-BSN application by the March 31, 2015 deadline.

RN-BSN Application

Applications for Fall/15 are accepted from March 1st to 31st, 2015. The deadline for application submission is March 31, 2015. Applications must be postmarked no later than March 31, 2015 or hand delivered to the College of Health & Human Services Student Services Center, McLane Hall, Room 194 at the close of business on that day. Applications must be complete and all required documents must be included. Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.

RN License & Driver's License

A copy of your clear (no restrictions), valid, active California RN licensee must be submitted with your RN-BSN application. A copy of your current California driver's license must also be submitted.

CPR Certification

Submit a copy of your current American Heart Association CPR card.

Personal Statement

A one-page typed statement (12-point Times New Roman font, one-inch margins top, bottom, left, right) must be submitted with your RN-BSN application. This should be comprised of your own writing and thoughts, and should include:

- Your reasons for choosing to complete the BSN at this time
- Your career goals upon completion (e.g., do you want to move into management, go to graduate school?)
- Brief discussion of your expectations of the time commitment and skills that will be required for success in this program
- Brief explanation of the adjustments you plan to make in your life in order to achieve success in this program

This statement may be used as the writing assessment in awarding points for additional admission criteria. A panel of reviewers will assess content (writing skill, realistic expectations/adjustments), grammar, spelling, and syntax.

Mail or deliver ALL required documents to:
