Executive Summary of Recreation Internship Program

NOTE: THIS SUMMARY MUST BE PRESENTED TO THE AGENCY OR ORGANIZATION REPRESENTATIVE PRIOR TO THE TIME OF THE INTERVIEW.

- I. The internship is an on-the-job training program. The placement is fifteen consecutive weeks in length and the student must work at least 35 hours per week, completing a total of 525 hours.* The intern is enrolled as a full time student (12 units of credit) during the placement. The internship is completed at the completion of all other coursework and no other coursework is completed during this semester. While the program requires a minimum of 15 weeks, an agency may require a longer internship period if it so desires.
- II. The agency must provide the student experiences in the following four areas as they relate to competencies taught in the RA program. Exact content and exposure will vary based on type of agency (commercial, municipal, nonprofit, sports/entertainment facility, outdoor, or therapeutic) and the recreation services provided.
 - A. Administration
 - Budgeting, purchasing, board/commission exposure, and report writing, needs assessment (facility and clientele), grant and/or fund development, application of mission/philosophy, professional and environmental ethics
 - B. Personnel Supervision
 - Exposure to personnel procedures (i.e. hiring, evaluation), supervision of part-time/volunteer staff, staff training, and staff meetings

The agency is responsible for all employment laws if compensation is made. The student may be compensated up to twenty (20) hours per week without need for department approval. Established internships that provide stipends or other remuneration for more than 20 hours per week are reviewed on a case by case basis to ensure the focus on the internship is on the learning experience. More information about compensation and labor laws can be found •http://www.colby.edu/careercenter/legal_issues_internships/.
- IV. Insurance
All interns are required to purchase a personal liability insurance policy upon registration for their internship. This policy provides personal liability coverage only. If the internship is a paid experience, the agency will provide workers compensation and other coverage required by federal and state employment law. It is recommended, and an agency may ask a student for proof of medical, health, and/or auto insurance.
- V. Concept of Internship
As previously identified above (Section II), the internship has four main areas of responsibility. The student should get a total exposure to the agency and the services offered. The intent is to provide the student with leadership, administrative, programming, supervisory, and public relations experiences in recreation complimenting the RA curriculum.

If you have questions, please contact the Internship Coordinator at (559) 278-2838.

*Therapeutic Recreation students are required to complete a minimum of 560 hours (38 hours per week) for NCTRC certification and 600 hours (40 hours/week) for CBRPC Certification.

I. INTRODUCTION

Internship Description

GENERAL INFORMATION

The primary purpose of the Department of Recreation Administration at California State University, Fresno is the development of competent and qualified recreation professionals at the undergraduate level. The culminating means of accomplishing this purpose is through a quality internship experience. The Department of Recreation Administration (RA) internship is considered to be a full-time academic load (12 units) for one semester. No other coursework is completed this semester. Internship is a practical learning experience students complete within an agency that provides programs and services consistent with the emphasis areas of the department. This phase of the students' professional preparation is a component of their academic education. The internship experience is a three-way partnership between the University, the student and the agency. All parties in the relationship assume defined responsibilities, perform specific functions and receive benefits as a result of their involvement. The Department wishes to provide high-quality, professional internship experiences for all Recreation Administration majors. Internship agencies desire to utilize RA students in their programs and provide them with on-the-job experience. RA students desire to obtain these internship experiences to further their educational goals. To this end all parties agree that they will accept appropriate placements without regard to race, creed, color, sex, religion, age, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation.

The internship requires the student to work 35 hours per week (38 for TR students) in the agency for a period of 15 consecutive weeks during the fall or spring semester (525 hours; 560-600 for TR students). While the program requires a 15 week experience, an agency can require a student to complete a longer internship. If a student accepts an internship at an agency requiring more than 15 weeks, the student is obligated to complete the number of weeks ascribed by the agency in order to successfully complete their internship. Student assignments (see pages 9-11) are viewed as homework and the time spent to complete the assignments is not to be taken from the required 35 hours. Successful completion of the internship is required of each student seeking a Bachelor of Science degree in Recreation Administration.

Students who successfully complete the Therapeutic Recreation emphasis are eligible to apply for certification by both the National Council for Therapeutic Recreation Certification and California Board of Recreation and Park Certification (please note, CBRPC has just changed the hour requirement to 600 hours). Information can be obtained at www.nctrc.org and www.cbrpc.org. Students graduating from other emphases may also be eligible for certifications specific to their area. Students should consult with their emphasis advisor for more information.

The Recreation Administration major is accredited by the Council on Accreditation: Recreation Parks, Tourism and Related Areas. Our faculty is dedicated to maintaining and exceeding the level of excellence established by COAPRT as well as certifying bodies including NCTRC and CBRPC. We are appreciative of the practitioners who willingly and unselfishly give of their time, knowledge, and the resources of their agencies in this collaborative approach to professional education.

INTERNSHIP PURPOSE

The primary purpose of the internship is to enable each student to meet his or her educational objectives through participation in a well-planned and organized practical experience. The internship provides a transition from the traditional academic curriculum to a practical application of theories, concepts, knowledge and skills in a professional setting. Students work under the supervision of a qualified practitioner at a cooperating agency and a Recreation Administration faculty member. Students seek and select an agency that offers diverse leadership, programming, supervision, and administrative opportunities in areas that correspond to their own professional goals and to their emphasis (Community Recreation and Youth Services, Commercial Recreation and Event Planning, Adventure Recreation and Tourism, Sports and Entertainment Facility Management, or Therapeutic Recreation).

Internship Goals and Student Learning Outcomes (all except therapeutic recreation):

The purpose of this course is to provide students with the opportunity to:

DURATION OF INTERNSHIP

The internship placement is a fifteen (15) consecutive week experience completed during the fall or spring semester. The internship will follow the beginning and ending dates of the regular semester, typically beginning during week 2 of the semester (see syllabus for calendar). If a agency's date for the beginning or ending of the internship is different than the department schedule, the Internship Coordinator must approve the date change before the student's placement at the agency is approved. Summer internships, if they are available and subsequent to RA Department approval, follow a slightly different schedule – typically 40 hours per week for approximately 12-14 weeks. The semester schedules generally fit the following:

Fall semester: End of August to the first week of December

Spring semester: End of January to the beginning of May

Summer semester: Immediately after finals thru mid-August (if approved)

Students work the hours and holiday schedule of the agency and not of the University. Hours in excess of 35 hours per week may not be used to reduce the total number of weeks of the internship. Students must work a minimum of 20 hours in any given week. Absences from the internship due to illness or other reasons must be discussed with the student's university advisor to determine if an extension of the internship is required.

During the internship, students should be encouraged to attend professional conferences and workshops. The Department expects the agency to assist their intern in scheduling responsibilities to allow the student to attend these conferences. The length of the internship will not be extended for the attendance of professional conferences.

STUDENT QUALIFICATIONS

1. The internship is completed during the last academic semester of the student's studies. No other coursework is completed this semester.
2. The prerequisites for the internship are the completion of all major, General Education, and University graduation requirements. Failure of any coursework the semester before internship, or failure to complete any requirement will result in the postponement of internship until the following semester.
3. Students must have their pre-internship hours documented and accepted in the semester prior to internship (see RA 180 syllabus for due date). Failure to have at least 200 hours (specific to the student's emphasis) documented and accepted by the end of the semester prior to internship will result in the postponement of the internship until the following semester. The internship does not count as a part of the pre-internship hours.

4. Students must have their placement approved prior to the RA 180 final exam date the semester prior to internship. Failure to have an approved placement by this date will result in the postponement of the internship until the following semester.

COMPENSATION

It is not required that a student receives compensation for the completion of this placement; however, the Department realizes the financial hardship placed upon the student to complete the internship. Therefore, arrangements for compensation can be made between the student and the agency and generally do not involve the Department. In such cases, the student may be compensated up to twenty (20) hours per week. If an agency agrees to compensate the student, the agency is responsible for all employment rules, regulations, and laws. We recognize that there are established internships that compensate for more than 20 hours/week. In most cases this is acceptable and will be reviewed on a case by case basis via a petition from the student. If monetary compensation is not possible, the agency may agree to provide room and/or board, and/or vehicle mileage, and/or payment to workshops, seminars and conferences. More information on labor laws and requirements can be found on pg. 13.

INSURANCE

All students are required to purchase liability insurance upon registration for their internship (RA 184 or 187). This is included in student course fees. This policy provides personal liability coverage only. Agencies may request verification of student coverage from the student. Additional information regarding the extent of coverage may be requested from the Internship Coordinator. Since the student's placement is off campus during the course of the internship, it is recommended that students purchase or have available, private medical, health and auto insurance. Agencies may ask for proof.

OUT OF STATE (HONORS) INTERNSHIP

Students achieving a 3.3 GPA in the RA major and a 3.0 GPA for all studies may be considered for an out-of-state placement. In addition to GPA requirements, students must also have completed 1000 pre-internship hours and be able to demonstrate professional involvement (see Out of State Internship Application form) Students must meet all qualifications.

TERMINATION

A student may be terminated from his or her internship at any time during the internship due to a violation of agency or university policy. The student must be provided with due process, including a meeting between the student, supervisor, and academic advisor to discuss the situation precipitating the termination recommendation. For out of state interns the meeting can be by phone or skype. Upon a mutual agency and university decision, the student will receive a failing grade and be required to retake RA 184 or 187 the following semester at an agency determined by the RA Faculty. In the event of a subsequent termination, the student will not be eligible for future internship placement.

Medical Withdrawal

If due to a medical diagnosis or significant life circumstance a student is advised by a medical professional to not continue with the internship, the student will be able to withdraw and reapply to complete the internship during the next semester or at the earliest possible opportunity after that. Verification will be required. Depending on the timing, the student will be advised to withdraw from the course (if possible) or will receive an incomplete. The internship coordinator and emphasis advisor will work with the student to identify a new internship location. If the agency, university, and student agree, the student will be allowed to return to previous site. Due to the requirement for consecutive week placement, the student will start over to complete a full internship. If unenrolled for more than one semester, the student must also apply to the university to maintain his/her catalog year and current student status.

Agency Selection Process

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Successful completion of the internship experience depends greatly upon the realization, understanding, acceptance, and completion of internship responsibilities. By accepting an internship assignment, students become a functional part of the agency. What students do on and off the job reflects upon the agency and the University. A sense of professionalism on the students' part is essential to a quality experience. How much and what the students gain from their internship experience directly relates to how much they contribute to the experience.

Agencies providing student internship opportunities understand the value of such experiences to students, their agency, and to the recreation industry in general. Agency directors expect interns to learn from the experience as well as to contribute to agency goals. Agencies must maintain their reputation for professional services and cannot afford inefficiency, irresponsibility, or other actions by a staff member, paid or volunteer, that would be detrimental to the agency's reputation.

The Department of Recreation Administration does not assign internship placements. Students are allowed to select their own internship agency under the guidance and approval of the Internship Coordinator and Emphasis Coordinators. The agency selected by the student needs to match the student's emphasis and the department may deny any internship placement if it does not believe the placement meets department requirements. Students will select their internship agency during the completion of RA 180 Professional Placement in Recreation, Parks, and Tourism. A listing of potential internship placements is available from the Internship Coordinator and Emphases Coordinators. Students may also access internship listings via the RA website and on the RA 180 blackboard site.

If a student wishes to be considered for an out-of-state placement, s/he must complete the Out of State (Honors) Internship Application, qualify, and be approved for this unique opportunity prior to making any commitments to the agency.

Although the Department recognizes the need for students to be able to be paid for their work experience, it should be noted that this is a practical learning experience in which the student is receiving university credit, and it is recognized that many agencies do not compensate. The primary basis for site selection should be for the quality of the learning experience and not for the amount of compensation. In all cases, the Emphasis Coordinator and Internship Coordinator will guide the student in determining the placement that best fulfills the student's learning objectives.

NEW AGENCY APPROVAL

All internship agencies must be approved prior to the student accepting the placement. While the Department strongly encourages students to select an existing agency from the available list, we recognize that some students may have unique needs or interests that will require the approval of a new agency. The agency supervisor or his/her designee must complete the New Internship Placement application and supply the required accompanying materials, including information on the agency programs and services and the supervisor. Special consideration will be given to agencies/supervisors who demonstrate involvement with appropriate professional organizations (i.e. California Park and Recreation Society (CPRS), National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA), Resort and Commercial Recreation Association (RCRA), Stadium Managers Association (SMA), American Therapeutic Recreation Association (ATRA)).

Special note for therapeutic placements:

- The faculty will encourage students interning within California to select sites certified by CBRPC. The intern's direct supervisor at the agency must be both nationally (NCTRC) and state (CBRPC) certified. Students will not be allowed to complete internships at a site without a nationally certified recreation therapist.

To be eligible for participation in the internship program, an agency must meet the following requirements:

1. Be professionally recognized and competent in the park, recreation, and tourism profession related to the specific areas of the internship.
2. Provide opportunities for the student to observe and participate in all aspects of the agency programs and services.
3. Employ and maintain at least one staff member who is qualified, through education, experience, and/or certification, to supervise the intern. The student should have one main supervisor who guides their experience throughout the semester.
4. Provide resources necessary to support the intern in the satisfactory completion of his or her goals and objectives, and the completion of assigned duties, to include work space, materials, and to allow the student to make essential phone calls to and maintain email communication with his or her faculty advisor.
5. Recognize the internship as a learning experience, providing opportunities to gain experience in all four of the areas identified in the executive summary as well as experiences in areas specific to the agency.

In the case of a new agency, final approval is not given until an affiliation agreement has been signed by both the agency designee and the university. If an agreement cannot be signed by either party for any reason, the student will not be allowed to complete an internship at that agency.

 11. The university advisor will, upon the review of all assignments and student evaluations, issue a letter grade at the completion of the semester.

Legal Issues

There are several areas agencies should review in determining how and when interns are used. A number of new laws and recent court decisions have heightened scrutiny of internships.

- Compensation- the major issue is whether or not interns need to be paid. In May 2010 the U.S. Department of Labor issued a six-part test to determine if an employer is required to provide payment. Under this test an employer is NOT required to pay an intern if these criteria are met:
 - The internship, even though it includes actual operation of the facilities of the employer, is similar to training that would be given in the educational environment;
 - The internship experience is for the benefit of the intern;
 - The intern does not displace regular employees;
 - The employer that provides the training derives no immediate advantage from the activities of the intern, and on occasion its operations may be impeded;
 - The intern is not necessarily entitled to a job at the conclusion of the internship; and
 - The employer and the intern understand the intern is not entitled to wages.

Consider the work performed by the intern. If the productive work outweighs the training and supervision burden imposed on the employer, an employee/employer relationship may be present. If that is the case, the employer may be subject to liability under the Fair Labor Standards Act. The test is whether the internship is structured to benefit the student and not the employer.

The RA department has structured this internship to be a learning experience for the student with specific goals and learning outcomes, created in partnership with the student, agency, and university. However, agencies are encouraged to review the Department of Labor standards to assure that they are in compliance with all labor requirements.

- Workers' compensation- these laws vary by state and often look at the relationship between intern and agency, and whether the intern is paid to determine coverage.
- Discrimination Claims- in California, paid and unpaid interns are both protected under federal and state statutes related to harassment and discrimination. In other States, the determining factor is again the relationship between student and employer. It is recommended that all claims of harassment or discrimination be taken seriously.
- Affordable Care Act- unpaid interns are not considered full time employees and are not bound by the requirements of the ACA. If an internship is paid, but is considered a seasonal position (typically 6 months or less brought on at approximately the same time each year), it also would not fall under the protection of the ACA. To be considered full-time, the intern must work more than 120 days. If the intern does not work 120 days he/she is not covered under the ACA. The 15 week internship required by the RA department is less than 120 work days.
- For other legal issues, agencies are encouraged to consult with their human resources departments. More information can be found at:

III. INTERNSHIP ASSIGNMENTS

All internship assignments will be graded based on timeliness, professional presentation, attention to detail, and thoroughness. It is expected that each assignment will be received on or prior to the due date. Assignments that do not adhere to these criteria will be graded down accordingly. Specific dates for all assignments will be identified on the syllabus.

Goals/Objectives (100 points)

The student, in cooperation with the agency supervisor, will develop 5-8 goals for the internship. The goals must cover the four areas of the internship (administration, personnel supervision, program planning, and public relations) as outlined in the internship description. There must be at least one (1) goal for each area and additional goals for areas where the student will be spending the majority of time. For each goal a minimum of two (2) learning objectives will be developed.

Goals are broad statements of intent. Learning objectives are the way we operationalize the goals and make them measurable. Learning objectives include three components- behavior (what you will do), condition (when/how it will occur), and criteria (how you will evaluate it- i.e. how many, independently). Keep in mind learning objectives are not what other people will do or show you, or what you will learn, but what you will do to operationalize your goals (demonstrate what you have learned). Also make sure you have enough learning objectives to match your goal (two objectives is the minimum, some of your goals need more than two objectives to fully meet the intent of the goal). The following are common examples of goal topics:

- Admin includes areas such as budgeting (overall), record keeping and report writing, risk management, facilities operation, grant writing/administration, fund development, needs assessment
- Personnel supervision includes areas such as hiring, orientation/training, scheduling, evaluating
- Program planning includes developing, implementing, and evaluating programs/events (evaluation is really important, do not miss this piece), program adaptation and inclusive services, needs assessment (program)
- Public relations- social networking, website development/maintenance, representing the agency at events/meetings, newsletters, brochures, press releases

Below is a sample goal and corresponding objectives.

Goal: Develop an understanding of the budgeting and reporting procedures of the agency

- Objective 1 – Assist in the budgeting of program supplies for the upcoming year by the end of Week 3.
- Objective 2 – By week 10, independently create a budget for spring and summer sports leagues.
- Objective 3 – During weeks 13-14, assist business manager to gather data and develop reports for two BHC grants.

15-Week Plan (80 points)

Based on the goals and objectives, the student will work with the agency supervisor to develop a 15-week plan that outlines specific experiences related to the required four core areas of internship and other internship duties.

Note: Because the internship is based on the students' goals and learning objectives and 15-week plan, students who fail to submit these assignments and/or necessary revisions by the assigned due date will not accrue internship hours. This means that each day the assignment or required revision is late will result in one additional day added on to the end of the internship. Accrual will resume once this assignment is complete.

Electronic Journal/Discussion Board (100 points)

The Electronic Journal is intended to foster academic and collegial connections. The journaling will provide students with feedback from colleagues as well as offer an opportunity to stay in contact with peers. Each month the university advisor will post a question on the course Discussion Board. The question will be designed to help students reflect on their experience, practice, etc. Students will be required to post their response to each question and also post a reaction to the submissions of fellow interns. There will be a total of three questions. The internship calendar will reflect the due dates for each of the journal entries.

Midterm Campus Visit (50 points)

Each student will return to the campus to discuss progress reports with his/her university advisor and to discuss the internship placement with students in at least one RA class. A mutually agreed upon assignment will be submitted for students placed out of state.

Program Plan/Case Study (150 points)

Using the program plan format from RA 77S, students will submit a program plan for a program that they developed and conducted during the internship. A mutually agreed upon assignment may be substituted in unique circumstances. Therapeutic Recreation students will be required to complete a case study. Using the format from TR coursework, student will develop a case study on a patient/client selected in consultation with the agency supervisor.

Contact with University Advisor (75 points)

Students must maintain adequate communication with their university advisor. Telephone contacts are mandatory for the first and last day of the internship. Other scheduled contacts may be either via telephone or email. The purpose of these contacts is to provide the university advisor with an update on successes, problems or needs.

Time Sheets (70 points)

Each week students are required to complete a RA 184/187 Time Sheet form. This will confirm the day, date, times, and total hours worked. In addition, students will write a weekly summary that describes how you spent your time this week including the most significant contribution you made to the agency and your most memorable learning experience. Each week should reflect 35 hours* of internship work. Each student is responsible to assure that a total of 525 hours are completed. Students must average 35 hours per week to achieve this total. No less than 20 and no more than 45 hours per week will be counted toward the total hours. Time sheets for weeks 1-7 are due with the Internship Manual 7/5/2017

Midterm Evaluation and weeks 8-15 are due with the Final. *Therapeutic recreation students must complete 38 hours per week totaling 560 hours over a 15 week period in order to meet NCTRC certification requirements and 40 hours per week totaling 600 hours over a 15 week period in order to CBRPC certification requirements.

Midterm and Final Evaluations (midterm 150 points, final 200 points)

The student is responsible for ensuring that the agency supervisor has completed and submitted the midterm and final evaluations or the mutually agreed upon (agreed to by the university advisor and agency) agency performance evaluations. Together, the student and agency supervisor will complete and review the evaluations. The student will complete a self-evaluation in preparation for these meetings. Based on the evaluation results, the student will develop a written plan to address areas of continued growth. Grading for these assignments will be based on the following: timeliness (30%); supervisor evaluation (30%); completed self-evaluation (10%); written plan to address areas of continued growth (30%).

Student Evaluation of Internship (25 points)

Students will complete an evaluation of the internship experience. The evaluation provides the opportunity for the intern to supply feedback about the agency, agency intern supervisor, and university advisor. The Department welcomes suggestions to improve the individual intern experience at the agency and the overall intern program.

Senior Celebration

Students completing their internship or enrolled in RA 180 Spring semester, are expected to attend the Senior Celebration held at the end of each spring semester. This is the department graduation ceremony. Students are also encouraged to attend the University Commencement. Details for Senior Celebration and University Commencement will be provided during the spring semester. Students may invite family, friends, and internship agency staff.
