Permanency Planning Strategies

For Dependency and Delinquency Professionals
 Fresno, November 12th & 13th
 9:00am-4:30pm

Training Details

You are invited to register for the Interdisciplinary Education on Permanency and the Courts training in Fresno, CA, sponsored by the Judicial Council of California in collaboration with the National Institute for Permanent Family Connectedness, Seneca Family of Agencies.

Training will cover: New, relevant case law and legislation emphasizing urgency to include permanency; systemic and practice changes needed to improve permanency; utility of a relational approach to prioritize permanency with non-minor dependents, strategies which increase family involvement as a key factor to reduce length of stay, attain permanence and promote well-being.

A continental breakfast, along with lunch, will be provided both days!
