THE POSITION

The County of Sonoma Human Services Department is seeking a qualified Social Services professional to join their team as a Social Service Supervisor II!

This recruitment is being conducted to fill one full-time vacancy in the Human Services Department and anticipated future vacancies as they occur. The current vacancy is in the Adult Protective Services (APS) Program of the Adult & Aging Division. This position will supervise an investigations unit.

The Adult and Aging Division works with individuals and the community to ensure the safety and well-being of vulnerable adults. Adult Protective Services (APS) responds to reports of abuse and neglect involving seniors and dependent adults and investigates suspected incidents of elder and dependent adult abuse, neglect, or exploitation, provides 24-hour response to life threatening emergencies involving older and dependent adults, and educates the community about elder abuse and identification.

The Social Service Supervisor II works under general direction to plan, organize, and supervise the work of a unit of Social Service Worker IVs. The ideal candidate will be an effective leader, and experienced Social Service Worker, with detailed knowledge of the Adult Protective Services Programs and regulations, a passion for older adult services, and knowledge about community and public programs and services available to assist older, vulnerable adults. Additionally, the ideal candidate will demonstrate the ability to direct and provide support to social workers and nurses in a fast-paced environment.

Typical duties include:

- Holds group meetings and individual conferences with assigned Social Service Workers to plan and review work activities and to discuss departmental policies and procedures, and specific case problems.

- Assigns cases to individual Social Service Workers so as to produce equitable workloads and to match individual skills and abilities with the work to be done.
- Reviews the work of Social Service Workers in order to insure conformance to State regulation and program policy, as well as appropriateness of services and referrals provided.
- Meets, confers, consults, and collaborates with other supervisors within the Social Service Department or with representatives of other agencies, in order to coordinate the unit's work with that of other units and most effectively meet agency goals.
- Performs a variety of supervisory tasks, including the evaluation and training of staff, ensuring that materials and facilities are available for the accomplishment of unit work, and interpreting needs of staff to administration.
- Provides backup for staff as required by interviewing clients, procuring and evaluating information, and making appropriate recommendations in difficult cases.
- Composes correspondence and prepares reports.
- Participates in on-going program development as well as policy and procedure protocol to ensure best practices.

The employment list established from this recruitment may be used to fill future full-time, part-time or extra help (temporary) vacancies as they occur during the active status of the list. County employees who wish to be considered for future vacancies should consider applying to this recruitment.

APPLICATION SUBMISSIONS REQUIRE THE SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONNAIRE BE COMPLETED.

Responses to supplemental questions may be scored using position-specific criteria. Please provide specific and detailed responses of a reasonable length to allow for thorough assessment of your qualifications. Responses which state "See Resume" or "See Application" may be considered insufficient and therefore may not be scored.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Education and Experience: Any combination of training and experience which would provide the opportunity to acquire the knowledge and abilities listed. Normally, a master's degree in social work, or a master's degree from a two year counseling program; and at least three years of experience at the level of Social Service Worker IV would provide such opportunity.

License: Possession of a valid driver's license at the appropriate level including necessary special endorsements, as required by the State of California to perform the essential job functions of the position.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

Thorough knowledge of: the principles and application of the psychology of individual and group behavior, community services and social work methods; problem solving and counseling techniques; social casework goals, principles and methods; socioeconomic factors which promote stable family life and elements which affect family stability; the intent and appropriate application of laws, rules, regulations, policies governing operation of public social service agencies; physical and mental illness and their Impact on personality; the principles and techniques of supervision and training.

Ability to: use social work methods and evaluation; apply crisis intervention and therapeutic social work counseling; communicate with, relate to, a varied client group; work constructively within an agency and community setting; control personal bias and apply social work ethics; assign and supervise the work of others; prepare detailed reports.

SELECTION PROCEDURE

The information contained in the application and responses to the supplemental questions will be evaluated and taken into consideration throughout the employment process. Applicants should list all employers and positions held within the last ten years in the work history section of your application and should be as thorough as possible when responding to the supplemental questions. You may include history beyond ten years if related to the position for which you are applying. If you held multiple positions with one employer, please list each position separately. Failure to comply with these instructions may impact your competitiveness in this process or may result in disqualification.

For more detailed information about examination steps and the hiring process, you are encouraged to go to: <http://hr.sonoma-county.org/content.aspx?sid=1024&id=1464> and review the Hiring Process Overview.

Application submissions require the supplemental questionnaire be completed.

The selection procedure will consist of the following examination:

An Application & Supplemental Questionnaire Appraisal Examination (weight 100%) will be conducted to evaluate each applicant's application and supplemental questionnaire for satisfaction of minimum qualifications (pass/not pass), and for educational coursework, training, experience, knowledge, and abilities which relate to this position. Each applicant will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

- Relevance of work history, related experience, and achieved level of education and/or training as described in the application and responses to the supplemental questions.

Candidates demonstrating possession of the minimum qualifications will be placed on an employment list in order of most qualified to least qualified based on the achieved score received in the Application & Supplemental Questionnaire Appraisal Examination. Scores may be adjusted based on such factors as number of candidates, anticipated vacancies, past practice, and natural breaks in the scores achieved by this group of candidates.

Fluent (reading, writing, conversation) Spanish is required for one of the positions filled by this recruitment. Applicants who do not indicate they possess this skill will not be considered for the bilingual position. The departmental selection interview for this position will be conducted partially in Spanish and an examination will be conducted prior to employment to confirm level of skill in this area.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

A background investigation is required prior to employment. Candidates referred to departments for a selection interview are typically required to sign authorization and release forms enabling such an investigation. Failure to sign prescribed forms will result in the candidate not being considered further for that vacancy. Reference information will not be made available to applicants.

Additionally, a pre-employment medical examination, including a drug screening, will be required prior to employment.

HOW TO APPLY

Applications are accepted on-line at: www.yourpath2sonomacounty.org. Paper applications may be submitted by person, fax (707-565-3770), email, or through the mail. All applications and appropriate supplemental information as outlined in the job bulletin must be RECEIVED by the time and date specified on the first page of this job announcement. Applications received after the recruitment closes will not be accepted.

The County of Sonoma is committed to a policy and actively pursues a program of equal employment and non-discrimination. More information can be found at: <http://hr.sonoma-county.org/content.aspx?sid=1024&id=1256>.
