ABOUT SIERRA COUNTY

Sierra County, with a population of a little over 3,300, is located in the heart of the northern section of the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

The town of Loyalton, with a population of approximately 862, is the most populated area of Sierra County. The County seat is located in Downieville.

Sierra County is comprised of 3 very different regions. The West side is mountainous and heavily forested, supporting miners and loggers. On the East side is a large alpine valley, home to farmers and cattle raising. Midway between lies the area of "Lake Basin", a collection of some 50 lakes, studded with resorts and campgrounds.
