

FAIHP

Fresno American Indian Health Project

JOB VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Fresno American Indian Health Project is seeking a qualified and committed team members for the following position:

Outpatient Therapist

Title: Outpatient Therapist
Department: Behavioral Health
Supervised by: Director of Behavioral Health Services
Supervises: Interns
Travel Required: Some
Type: Full-time; 40 hours per week; Exempt

The Therapist is responsible for coordinating mental health care services for American Indian clients. Provides assessment and counseling/therapy to eligible children and families as a member of a treatment team. The therapist identifies the social needs and coordinates linkage of clients with one-to-one therapeutic counseling regarding mental health or substance abuse issues. The therapist will be part of a multi-disciplinary team and the may provide services in the field.

MANDATORY MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

- MA in clinical psychology, ASW, LCSW, MFTI, LMFT or Ph.D./Psy.D. in psychology from an accredited graduate program; California License or license-eligible preferred.
- Experience: Minimum one year clinical experience with children and families.
- Strong interest in providing home-based, culturally relevant therapeutic services.
- Demonstrable ability to communicate effectively and professionally both verbally and in writing.
- Demonstrable ability or willingness to work with culturally diverse populations, youth, and professionals.
- Knowledge of and/or sensitivity to the needs of the American Indian community.
- Valid California Driver's license and DMV report with fewer than 2 infraction points within a 12-month period and automobile insurance

Submit resume to jobs@faihp.org