PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS~ Social Workers have the appropriate education and experience to guide individuals, families, and communities through complex issues and choices; and
- WHEREAS~ Social Workers identify and address gaps in social systems that impede full participation by individuals or groups in society; and
- WHEREAS~ Social Workers function as specialists, consultants, private practitioners, educators, community leaders, policymakers and researchers; and
- WHEREAS~ Social Workers help people in every stage of life function better in their environments, improve their relationships with others, and solve personal and family problems; and
- WHEREAS~ Social Workers are society's safety net, providing vital resources and support to those who need it most. From working in hospitals and schools, to providing clinical services in mental health clinics and group homes, social workers work across a range of practice areas to make the greatest impact on the individuals and families they serve in Fresno County; and
- WHEREAS~ Social Workers celebrate the courage, hope, and strength of the human spirit throughout their careers.

Now THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Fresno County Board of Supervisors hereby proclaims the month of March as Social Worker Appreciation Month and join with the Fresno County Department of Social Services in honoring professional Social Workers and their commitment and dedication to individuals, families, and communities everywhere through service delivery, research, education, and advocacy.
