

California State University, Fresno

College of Science and Mathematics

Psychology

Vacancy # 12771

<http://www.fresnostate.edu/csm/>

Applied Behavior Analysis Assistant/Associate Professor

California State University, Fresno is an engaged University. We focus on broadening students' intellectual horizons, fostering lifelong learning skills, developing the leaders of tomorrow, promoting community involvement, and instilling an appreciation of world cultures. We nurture cultural competence by celebrating the rich diversity of the campus community and welcoming the participation of all. Members of the University community are expected to work effectively with faculty, staff and students from diverse ethnic, cultural and socioeconomic backgrounds. For information on the University's commitment and dedication to creating a university known for its integrity, civility, equity, respect and ethical behavior, please visit: <http://www.fresnostate.edu/academics/diversity>

- Available for Academic Year: 2016/2017.
- Fresno State has been recognized as a Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI); an Asian American/Native American/Pacific Islander-Serving Institution (AANAPISI); and has been designated to the Community Engagement Classification by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching.
- Faculty members gain a clear path to tenure through the University's Probationary Plan Process.
- Salary placement depends upon academic preparation and professional experience.

Position Summary:

The Department of Psychology in the College of Science and Mathematics at California State University, Fresno seeks applicants for a tenure-track, academic year position as an Assistant or Associate Professor of Psychology with a specialty in applied behavior analysis and autism.

Overview:

The Department of Psychology—serving approximately 1400 students—offers rigorous training in all major areas of psychological science at both the undergraduate and master's levels. The faculty are dedicated teachers and accomplished researchers who place great emphasis on engaging students in research and community service. We are particularly proud of our undergraduate and graduate programs in applied behavior analysis and the new Behavioral Sciences Institute, which houses our growing Autism Center.

Required Education:

An earned doctorate in psychology (Ph.D.) or education (Ed.D.) from an accredited institution (or equivalent) is required; however, applicants nearing completion of the doctorate (ABD) may be considered. For continued employment in the tenure-track position the doctorate must be completed by (8/13/2016).

Required Experience:

1) Board Certified Behavior Analysis (BCBA) certification; 2) training or experience in the treatment of autism; 3) Evidence of potential for successful teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels; 4) Evidence of success in scholarly research; 5) Demonstrated commitment to working effectively with faculty, staff, and students from diverse ethnic, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds.

Preferred Qualifications:

1) Successful teaching experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels; 2) Publications in peer-reviewed journals commensurate with level of experience; 3) Evidence of ability to obtain extramural funding for research; 4) Experience conducting community-based research; 5) Experience working within a community-based clinic or research center.

Application Procedures:

Review of applications will begin November 30, 2015, and will continue until the position is filled. To apply, applicants must complete an on-line application at jobs.fresnostate.edu and attach the following: 1) a cover letter specifically addressing required experience and preferred qualifications; 2) a curriculum vitae, 3) a statement of teaching experience, interests, and philosophy, 4) a statement of research interests, and 5) a minimum of three professional letters of reference dated within the past 12 months. Finalists will be required to submit official transcripts. For inquiries, contact: Dr. Paul Price, Search Committee Chair; California State University, Fresno; Department of Psychology; 2576 E. San Ramon Avenue, M/S ST11; Fresno, CA 93740-8039; Phone: 559.278.2120; E-mail: paulpri@csufresno.edu.

Other Requirements:

A link to the Annual Safety and Security/Fire Safety Report is provided in compliance with the 1998 Jeanne Clery Disclosure Act, and California Education Code section 67380. The report includes three calendar years of select campus crime statistics and it includes security policies and procedures for the campus. Applicants, students, and employees can obtain a copy of this report from the web site: <http://www.fresnostate.edu/police/clery/index.shtml> or by contacting the Campus Police Department. The person holding this position may be considered a "mandated reporter" under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment. You can obtain a copy of this Executive order by accessing the following web site: <http://www.calstate.edu/eo/EO-1083.html>

Background Check:

Necessary background investigations will be conducted, as required, depending upon the job requirements of position. These could include, but are not limited to, processing of fingerprints through the Department of Justice and FBI and degree and license verification upon employment. An offer of employment may be withdrawn or employment may be terminated based upon the results of these verifications. Full disclosure of all misdemeanors and felonies should be made in connection with this application.

Equal Employment Opportunity:

California State University, Fresno is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, disability, marital status, or protected veteran status.