

Ghana Service-Learning 2017 Supplemental Application

Student ID: _____ Cell Number: _____

Gender (circle one): Male Female Email: _____

Due to restrictions on accommodations in the village of Shia, Ghana; we must limit the number of individuals depending on gender. Therefore, we must collect this information to ensure that we do not select too many individuals from either gender.

Please submit your completed application to the Department of Agricultural Business, Peters 302. This application is to get on the waitlist for the course, if a currently enrolled student drops, you will be contacted. Please include your phone and email so we can contact you.

This form will be used for an anonymous screening of applicants for the 2017 Ghana Service-Learning trip. Please do not write your name on the form. We ask you to limit your responses to each question, there is no length requirement, brevity is preferred with a maximum of a few paragraphs per question.

Why are you interested in the Ghana trip as opposed to another study abroad trip?

What passions, talents, or resources will you bring to this trip that could benefit your fellow participants and that you can share with the people of Ghana?

What are you hoping to gain from this experience?

Throughout this experience you will live and work extremely closely with fellow participants and the Ghanaians (and likely without internet access). Group cohesion is vital. Please discuss your ability and willingness to contribute to a positive team dynamic, including through regular team reflection conversations and group activities.

Please check the boxes below indicating that you understand.

- I understand that within two weeks of selection, I will be expected to pay a $300 deposit by June 1, 2017. An additional $1,200 fee to Madventurer will be due on approximately October 27, 2017. Additional costs of approximately $1,500 for flight, plus tuitions and fees, and other expenses will be required at a later date. Students will be notified of the payment deadlines upon selection. (Every effort will be made to reduce student costs through fundraising and donations.)

- I understand that the trip accommodations are rustic and that the main purpose of this trip is service.

- I understand that selection for this trip is competitive and that failure to adhere to deadlines related to payments and paperwork could result in a loss of my spot.
