ARI Cash Match Verification Form

Cash match is generally defined as cash, check and/or other negotiable United States currency contributions made by non-CSU parties that directly benefits and is specifically pertinent to an ARI or ARI master grant funded project (see the complete cash match definition in the glossary section of this instruction manual). Cash match must be deposited in an appropriate ARI campus auxiliary foundation or university state financial account. The cash match verification summary must be completed by the project director and signed by the campuses Foundation or State's Authorized Signatory.
