
Job Description:

Corliss Estates and its sister winery Tranche Cellars are small family-owned wineries located in Walla Walla, Washington. Employing both new and old world techniques, we specialize in the small-batch production of premium wines with the use of two state of the art winemaking facilities. We source fruit from estate vineyards on Red Mountain and Walla Walla, as well as from some of the most highly regarded growers in the Columbia Valley.

We have a small team of skilled and passionate people truly dedicated to producing wines at the highest level. We are currently looking for motivated and hard-working interns to join us for the 2015 harvest. These positions will cover every level of harvest activity from grape analysis, fruit receipt and berry sorting, to pumpovers, pressing and barrel work. We will spend time with each member of the team to ensure that they gain a solid understanding of our winemaking style and techniques.

Job Requirements/Skills

- Completed at least one cellar internship
- Completed a degree in, or currently studying enology or viticulture
- Self-motivated and efficient with his/her use of time and comfortable working in a small team
- Ability to drive a forklift and possess a valid driver's license
- Physically fit and able to lift and carry up to 50lb
- Attention to detail is a must
- Most importantly, possess a true passion for wine and an interest in the production of high quality wines

Interested individuals should send their resume, cover letter and a list of work references via email to lgresset@corlissestates.com