

ROCHE

WINERY & VINEYARDS

Position: Paid Harvest Intern
Type: Temporary - Seasonal
Pay Rate: DOE.
Dates: August 15 – November 1, 2015 (approximately)

Job Duties:

- Vineyard sampling and analysis
- Crushing and pressing of grapes including setup and breakdown
- Wine production from grape to barrel
- Sanitation of press, tanks and other crush equipment
- Tasting and evaluation of juice and wines
- Juice and wine analysis
- Fermentation monitoring
- Wine movements, racking, topping, additions

Job Requirement:

- Science background desired, students in V&E desired
- Must be able to handle long hours, 5-7 days/week, 8-12 hours/day
- Must be able to lift heavy loads and climb stairs
- MUST have an interest in producing top-quality wines

Winery Bio:

We are a small (15,000 case), family-owned winery dedicated to producing award-winning wines in Sonoma. We specialize in Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Syrah and Merlot. In addition to our own production, we also custom crush for several other wineries.

Contact Info

E-mail resume and cover letter to:

Michael Carr
122 W. Spain St.
Sonoma, CA 95476
Tel: 707-935-7115 x 110
E-mail: michaelcarr@rochewinery.com