

We are a fine wine brand looking for harvest interns who are seeking a unique opportunity to work in an Urban Winery in Point Richmond, California. We craft extraordinary small lot wines from some of the finest vineyards in California. Come experience the breathtaking views of the San Francisco Bay from a historical building that was once used to build the Liberty and Victory Ships of World War II.

This is a temporary position that should last from Mid-August 2016 through the middle of November 2016.

This position is ideal for a candidate who is passionate about making incredible Pinot Noir (from critically acclaimed sites from Santa Rita Hills, Chalone, Russian River, and Sonoma Coast), stellar Syrah (from amazing vineyards in Santa Barbara County, Santa Lucia Highlands, Russian River Valley, and Napa Valley) and various other delicious Rhone varietals to include Viognier, Grenache Blanc, Petite Sirah, Grenache, and Mourvedre.

Requirements:

- Must have passion, desire, and energy
- Great attitude with an emphasis in being a team player
- Attention to detail
- Ability to follow directions
- Must enjoy hard work
- Must be able to routinely lift 50 lbs.
- Appreciates cleanliness and sanitation
- Honesty
- Reliable, flexible, and versatile
- Must have a sense of humor
- Reliable transportation
- Must love the sweet melodies of Barry Manilow

This position is available 08/15/2016. We prefer candidates with a degree in Enology or Viticulture with at least one harvest experience; however, it is not required. Pay depends on level of education and experience. Please e-mail cover letter and resume to aguerrero@galateaeffect.wine. For more information please visit galateaeffectfinewine.com
