

Skilled Cellar Worker & 2016 Harvest Intern

Heller Estate Organic Vineyards

Carmel Valley, CA

Looking for a highly motivated, enthusiastic and hardworking individual to work under the general supervision of the Winemaker to produce high quality wines. This position has the option to turn into full-time work after harvest if the right fit.

Position includes (not limited to):

- Grape receiving, sorting and operating crush equipment
- Juice and wine racking and transfers
- Additions, fermentation monitoring
- Daily punch downs and pump-overs
- Cleaning and sanitation
- Cleaning, filling, racking, and topping barrels
- Drain, digging and pressing tanks
- Perform other duties as assigned

Qualifications:

- Previous cellar and lab experience a plus
- Familiar with & attention to cellar safety rules and regulations
- Be able to follow and complete work orders
- Commitment to working long hours 6 to 7 days a week while maintaining a positive attitude
- Eagerness to learn, and the ability to think ahead and anticipate the next steps
- Must have reliable transportation

Working Conditions:

- Standing for long period of time (8 hours or more)
- Exposure to machinery and forklifts
- Long and irregular hours during peak periods on various shifts
- Must be able to lift and carry 60 pounds
- Work outside in varying weather conditions
- Will be required to walk, climb, crawl, stand and kneel

Compensation: DOE

If you are interested please submit your resume to: wineryhellerestate@gmail.com