

2017 LAB INTERNS

The Monterey Wine Company is seeking a student intern that is motivated and hardworking individuals with previous Lab/Quality Control Tech experience to work during the 2017 Harvest Season. Student interns will have to opportunity to gain valuable experience working with state of the art equipment, winemaking methods, numerous varietals, and styles.

This is a temporary position for the 2017 harvest. The position will start in late July and will end December 01, 2017.

Duties may include but are not limited to:

- Performs daily chemical and microbiological lab tests on juice/wine samples to ensure that all specifications are met.
- Reagent preparation and quality control
- Perform daily bottling line quality check on packaging materials and finished product.
- Automated and wet chemistry analyses.
- Chemistry analyses utilizing sophisticated instrumentation and methodologies.
- Traditional and molecular microbiology analyses.
- Documentation of analytical results and maintaining traceability.
- Instrument setup, calibration, maintenance & troubleshooting.
- Routine purchasing and inventory maintenance.
- Participation in and promotion of continuous improvement efforts within the laboratory.

- Keeping the laboratory environment organized, safe, and tidy.
- Adherence to strict confidentiality of the company's and clients' intellectual property.

Recommended Qualifications:

Students who is enrolled in, or recently completed a wine-related degree program (food science, biology, chemistry, microbiology, enology, etc..

Knowledge in quality control procedures and related statistics.

Strong attention to detail and ability to precisely follow directions.

Must be computer literate and know MS Word and Excel.

Ability to lift, push, pull and carry up to 50 lbs occasionally

Ability to stand for extended periods of time, walk on wet surfaces, climb stairs and ladders.

-
- Housing and transportation to-and-from winery provided.

Send resume to:

Monterey Wine Company

info@montereywinecompany.com

Personnel Department, 1010 Industrial Way

King City, CA 93930

Fax 831-386-1104

E.O.E.